I. AUTHOR INDEX

NOTE.—In the transliteration of names originally written in Russian the system followed so far as possible is that of Nature 41, 396-7(1890) in which z is used instead of the w or f of other spellings; zh instead of sch; ch instead of tch; i instead of y or ï etc. Thus Pavlov not Pawlow; Chugaev not Tschugaeff. To make quite sure users of the index should in such a case look under both spellings.

WHAT DOES THE BUYER GET?

In purchasing a subscription to CHEMICAL REVIEWS, the Society's quarterly journal, the subscriber receives what, in effect, are four unbound books on a variety of subjects of current timely interest, for a dollar apiece

Short concise summaries of existing knowledge—this characterizes the REVIEWS. Every author is a picked man, nearly all papers are received by invitation

CHEMICAL REVIEWS offers a ready means of keeping in touch with the progress of chemistry as a whole
